About Us.

Introduction

Founded in 2022, Flexverse Polymers is the result of over three decades of industry expertise, built upon the legacy of our sister companies: Hitech Rubber Industries (Mumbai, India) and Kanta Enterprises (Bengaluru, India). Together, our companies have been at the forefront of construction, infrastructure, and waterproofing industries, delivering exceptional products and services across a diverse range of projects in India and around the world.

Quality Statement.

At Flexverse Polymers, we understand that choosing high-performing and reliable products are crucial to a project's success. This is why our ISO-accredited manufacturing processes entail rigorous testing for all products at our in-house labs as well as NABL-approved third-party facilities, to meet and exceed national and international standards.

Our commitment to quality extends to our services. Along with premium products, we provide dedicated customer support every step of the way, ensuring you have the right solutions when you need them.
